New York Calls Out 1,400 Extra Policemen to Try and Halt Wild, Bloody Teenage Gang Clashes

ASHAMED OF FAILURE — Chinese student Cheng Guan Lin peers timidly around a doorway as he is taken from the Ann Arbor, Mich., jail for questioning as to why he hid in the attic of a church for three years and 10 months. Lin said he chose to hide from the world rather than endure the shame of failure in his studies at the University of Michigan and an ignominious return to his home land.

NEW YORK (AP) — Volving alarm over mounting teenage violence in the city, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller stepped into the situation today to see if the state can help local authorities combat it.

Rockefeller summoned his executive staff to an afternoon discussion of the outburst of savagery, which cost the lives of four youngsters in a week and left a number of others injured.

"I am alarmed both in the terms of human suffering and about all of these young people setting off on the wrong foot in life," he said.

"I am deeply concerned both as governor and as a parent, and I know all of the families in the state are concerned about this trend."

"We've all got to mobilize more effectively the forces of private, state and local agencies."

Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy already has shifted 1,400 extra police to patrol duty from other jobs in a sweeping move to halt the bloody clashes.

He announced the move Monday night, and at the same time released statistics showing a steady increase in youthful crime in the city.

The figures on arrests for people under 21 since the year began show 57 for murder or man slaughter and 197 for rape.

Four youths were charged with homicide in the latest outbreak, the fatal stabbing of two 16-year-old boys in a playground Sunday.

The trouble started Sunday when a 39-year-old mother of another boy.

Kennedy's figures showed that more than 8,000 youths under 21 have been arrested for felonies in the city since Jan. 1. For those under 18, arrests were up almost 15 per cent over last year. For those from 16 to 20 the increase was more than 12 per cent.

Kennedy said the extra police will be on the streets in "trouble spots" during the danger hours from 6 p. m. to 2 a. m.

Police said Frenchy Cordero, 19, one of the four charged with homicide was walking along the street in Manhattan's West Side about a month ago when he saw Eleanor Diaz, 39, sitting on the steps outside a tenement.

She said Frenchy offered her some marijuana, and she refused. Just then her son John, 18, came along, heard about the offer, and an argument developed. Diaz apparently got the better of the argument, and Cordero felt insulted. Cordero later rounded up some friends and went looking for Diaz. When they couldn't find him, they attacked eight other teenagers. Robert Young and Anthony Kizinski were stabbed to death.

Others arrested Monday on homicide charges in the case were Rogelio Soto, 17, like Cordero, a laborer; and Francisco Cruz and Nestor Hernandez, both 18 and factory workers.

Ben Owen, parade chairman, has been notified of a number of people from Texarkana who will participate in the parade as a courtesy to their fellow townsmen. A. P. Cox is President of the Third District Show this year. Among those attending will be Ben Mizell, President of the Four States Fair and several other Four States Officials.

Livestock Show Parade Reset for Sept. 9

Due to the Labor Day holiday falling on the first day of the Livestock Show and since all of the stores will be closed on that day the date of the annual Livestock Show Parade will be postponed from Monday afternoon, September 7, until Wednesday afternoon, September 9th at 3 o'clock.

This will be a combined Livestock Show and Rodeo parade since Wednesday evening will be the first of four evenings of Rodeo at the Coliseum.

Bands and those who plan to enter floats in the parade have been notified of this change and Livestock Show officials expect to have a larger crowd and more participation as a result of the change.

Ben Owen, parade chairman, has been notified of a number of people from Texarkana who will participate in the parade as a courtesy to their fellow townsmen. A. P. Cox is President of the Third District Show this year. Among those attending will be Ben Mizell, President of the Four States Fair and several other Four States Officials.

Nursing Home Probers Call Ex-Operator

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The woman operator of a Little Rock nursing home under attack by Gov. Orval E. Faubus appeared as a witness in a Pulaski County Grand Jury probe today.

Mrs. Gladys Brandon, operator of the Trinity Nursing Home, entered a large book apparently containing records as she entered the jury room.

Faubus charged July 16 that conditions at Trinity were substandard and said welfare patients would be removed. Mrs. Brandon denied the governor's charges and asked for a grand jury has about three weeks before Foreman Phil A. Dulin said Mrs. Brandon was the only witness called today.

Faubus said when he made the charges that a general investigation of nursing homes in Arkansas would be carried out by officials.

Mrs. Brandon was the 44th witness to testify before the grand jury since its probe began. The jury has about three weeks before making its final report and being replaced by a new panel.

Others arrested Monday on homicide charges in the case were Rogelio Soto, 17, like Cordero, a laborer; and Francisco Cruz and Nestor Hernandez, both 18 and factory workers.

Earth Won't Be Too Clear Out in Space

By STANLEY MEISLER
WASHINGTON (AP) — What would the earth look like to someone rocketing 700 miles out in space.

Things wouldn't be too clear, but you could make out the outlines of continents.

The curves of South America and Africa could be seen and, with a good geographic background, you might find the dark, dark Amazon River delta in Brazil.

Africa and South America would look like next door neighbors.

These are some of the answers provided by photographs that have been recovered from a camera in the nose cone of an Atlas ballistic missile that zoomed into space a week ago.

The Air Force showed the pictures Monday in still and motion picture film. The motion pictures ran for 11 minutes and showed the earth from an altitude of 190 miles to the high point of 700 miles.

At 700 miles, the photos showed about a sixth of the earth's surface, covering the area from the west central bulge of Africa to the Amazon delta in South America.

All the land masses seemed to show up as bright sections, while the bodies of water were covered by blackness.

The Atlas, which carried the camera Aug. 24, traveled 5,100 miles from Cape Canaveral, Fla., to a point in the South Atlantic near Ascension Island.

Minor Damage in Collision Here
A taxicab driven by Olaf Lively and an auto driven by Jimmy Sharman collided yesterday on West Avenue B with only slight damage resulting. Officers Rothwell and Willis reported.

Magistrate Frank Zartel heard the testimony and kept the sequence of events going. He fined Lively $50 for assault.

Everything Worked Out as Planned

LITTLE FERRY, N.J. (AP) — Anthony Havel testified in court Monday that on Aug. 16 he telephoned his mother and asked her to get some bail money; went to police headquarters and told police he was going to get arrested; then went to a local tavern and slapped his wife's face.

The planning paid off. Havel was arrested.

Magistrate Frank Zartel heard the testimony and kept the sequence of events going. He fined Havel $50 for assault.

Ike Resists a British Move for Summit Meet

By MARVIN ARROWSMITH

LONDON (AP) — President Eisenhower resisted a strong new bid by Prime Minister Harold Macmillan for an early summit conference with the Soviet Union, high diplomatic sources reported today.

The American leader instead insisted that any decision on top-level talks must await the outcome of his meetings with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Macmillan went along with Eisenhower's argument, after realizing that the American position was not subject to change, it was said.

Even up to Monday, informants said, the two leaders were trying to reconcile their differing approaches to the issue.

Macmillan insisted the meetings of the Big Four foreign ministers in Geneva justified the calling of early summit talks. Eisenhower disagreed.

The President stayed fast in his London "White House" most of the day catching up on arrears of administration business. He was busy signing bills and talking to Washington once.

From both sides of the Iron Curtain came signs that Eisenhower's mission to thaw the ice of the cold war was bringing results.

In German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer made an unexpected gesture of conciliation and friendship to Poland, largest of the East European Communist satellites.

The crusty German leader broadcast a message of peace and friendship to the Poles on the eve of the 20th anniversary of Hitler's attack on Poland. Adenauer apologized for the Nazi act.

In the Soviet Union, Premier Nikita Khrushchev made an unusual declaration of trust in Eisenhower.

"The President of the United States realizes the main thing now is to ensure peace," Khrushchev said. "In this we have no differences."

In Britain, Eisenhower's initiative on the peace front coupled with his vigorous appearance apparently had removed fears that America was fumbling the free world's leadership.

to communism. The speaker of the lower house refused to permit debate on the report until Prime Minister Nehru could be present. Nehru went to the airport today for a brief meeting with Pakistan President Mohammed Ayub Khan. Although Meron was in Parliament, he refused to say if the report were true.

Members complained angrily that the report was causing anxiety throughout the nation, coming as it did when Chinese Communist troops are trespassing on territory claimed by India along the remote, uninhabited frontier with Tibet.

The sensational report of the resignations was published by the British-owned Statesman of Calcutta and New Delhi.

Jefferson Co. Judge Enters School Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Jefferson County Judge Joe T. Henslee has filed a brief in U.S. District Court here contending that a 3-judge federal court should not act on four state laws attacked by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

Henslee's brief yesterday said state courts should act first on the statutes, Acts 12, 13, 14 and 16 of 1958. They are considered anti-NAACP laws.

The brief concurred in essence with one filed Aug. 25 by Atty. General Bruce Bennett. Bennett is co-defendant in the suit brought by the NAACP contending the acts are unconstitutional.

Judge Henslee is one of four county officials named defendant with Bennett in the suit. His brief asked permission to file a response and contended there is no real controversy requiring the declaratory judgment sought by the NAACP.

Henslee said he had not received instructions to carry out prosecution permitted in one of the acts. The four acts are part of a package designed to hamper the NAACP in Arkansas.

Bennett said in his brief state courts should be given the opportunity to act first on such laws when there is a chance their action could avoid a federal appeal.

Bomb Shelter Bill Signed by President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today signed a bill appropriating $2,400,000 to build an underground bombshelter for the office of Civil and Defense Mobilization regional headquarters in Denton, Tex. Word of this action in London was received here.

Normal operations of the Denton office cover only five states: Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas and New Mexico, but the federal government itself could be administered from Denton in an emergency.

In recommending that Congress provide funds for the Denton set-up, President Eisenhower noted that the project would serve as a prototype for those ultimately planned for the seven other regional Civil Defense headquarters in the nation.

The two-level underground structure is expected to have a normal complement of 200 persons. About 140 would be OCDM employees, the remainder representatives from the various federal departments and agencies which carry on essential civilian activities.

The 200 persons would conduct the peace-time day-to-day operations of the OCDM throughout the Southwest.

The shelter would be equipped with sufficient oxygen, food and bedding to accommodate 500 persons below ground for 30 days.

In event of war, that number could be working at the Denton headquarters if it had to take over direction of non-military government activities.

Children's Colony Taking Patients

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — Four mentally retarded children were admitted to the Arkansas Children's colony today, the first landrum-griffin labor bill facility can accommodate.

Four children will be received each day this week, Colony Supt. David Ray said. He expects the capacity of 258 to be reached by Dec. 1.

The $1,200,000 Colony has received 1,500 applications for admission. Dedication of the Colony is set for Oct. 4.

New York Bank Ups Loan Rate

NEW YORK (AP) — First National City Bank of New York today boosted the prime lending rate from 4½ to 5 per cent, effective immediately.

The prime rate is a basic money market charge and heralds an increase in other interest charges all along the line. The prime rate is what banks charge their biggest customers with the best credit ratings.

Five per cent is the highest rate in 28 years. It was increased last May from 4 to 4½ per cent.

Similar action by other major banks across the country was expected.

The hike in the prime rate came as no surprise. Money had been growing tighter and demand for business loans has increased steadily. The start of the fall season brings wholesalers and retailers into the money market to finance accumulation of inventories for the fall and Christmas season.

Community lenders and food processors also step up their bank borrowing to finance purchase of crops.

The increase in lending rates to business will lead inevitably to higher borrowing costs for consumers.

Johnson Letter Is Called Cheap Politics

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) today labeled as "cheap political horse-play" a letter he received from Associate Justice Jim Johnson of the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Johnson made the letter public to last week. In it he criticized the Arkansas senator for his support of the 258 youngsters which the new facility can accommodate.

Johnson said the bill would prohibit segregation of the races in each day this week, Colony Supt. David Ray said. He expects the capacity of 258 to be reached by Dec. 1.

Proposes Privilege Tax on Pipelines

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A privilege tax on pipelines running across public lands and navigable streams in Arkansas is proposed by state Sen. Gaither C. Johnston of Dermot.

Johnston also asked for stronger legislation covering pipelines. He made the request to Marcus Halbrook, executive director of the Legislative Council. He asked for measures establishing regulatory procedures so location of pipelines would be authorized only after proper study and hearing.

Johnston cited a recent court decision as raising several questions on the "adequacy" of laws regarding pipelines.

Circuit Judge G. B. Colvin Jr. directed each of three state turnback funds.

Faulkner County governmental units paid $75,500 for reappraisal by the Monticello firm. A court suit has been filed seeking to recover the money.

No Private Attorney, Bennett Rules

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty.
Gen. Bruce Bennett ruled today that the state Health Department could not employ a private attorney to handle its legal work.

Bennett said that a special appropriation for an attorney would be necessary before the Health Department could employ one. He noted that no such appropriation was included in the Department's 1959-60 budget.

Bennett also noted a 1947 statute which sets out that the attorney general's office shall handle all legal work for state officials and agencies.

"This office stands ready...
to lend advice in any litigation,"
the opinion said.

Discussing the matter at a news conference today, Gov. Orval E.
Faubus disagreed with Bennett.
The governor said he thought there was a law which permitted a state agency to employ private counsel if either the governor or the attorney general agreed with such employment.

Faubus said the Health Department was involved in a considerable amount of litigation and
"perhaps they need a private attorney now."

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Milford of Texarkana were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. A.
Graves.

When Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wray went to Warren this past weekend for the wedding of their son,
Will Larry, to Miss Daisy Janelle
Bridges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Jerome Bridges, they were accompanied by Buddy Elkins of Shreveport.

Those from Hope taking part in the Bridges-Wray wedding at the First Methodist Church of Warren
on August 30 included Miss Susan Davis, vocal soloist; Roy Wray, brother of the bridegroom, and Lee Lane, candle lighters; William Leigh Wray, best man for his son; and Rex Easter and Van Moore, ushers.

DOROTHY DIX

Miserly Man Makes
A Miserable Match

Dear Dorothy Dix: Most women seem to get stuck with husbands who are either drunkards, philanderers, lazy or mamma's boys. Of these, who are the greatest liabilities on the matrimonial market? A group of us who are very much interested in what makes marriage work would like your opinion.—Club Gals

Dear Gals: First of all, I disagree with your opening statement. Most women do not get stuck with husbands who have major faults. Most women marry, and are very happy with, ordinary males of no great talents or vices. Most husbands are hard-working, loving, conscientious men who do their best for wives and children—and that "best" is quite adequate. They wouldn't make the movies, TV or a list of the best dressed men, but they are homebodies with an average amount of human frailties.

However, to get back to your list. You omitted the husband who is the cause of more unhappiness, more complaints, than any other. His name is "miser," and he is miserable to live with. More wives complain about niggardly husbands than all other kinds combined. Here is the one mate who offers no happiness to a wife and no hope of ever having any.
The drunkard can be cured and can be a champion in his sober moments. The philanderer comes back to his wife's waiting arms between amours, the lazy man can grow up, the mama's boy is usually a good companion. But the miser has no redeeming qualities—he offers no hope of cure and he is as tight with affection as he is with money. Any comments, readers.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Itah and I have been going steady for a year. I wear his pin and he says he'll give me a ring at Christmas. I'm not sure about him, though. Every once in a while he quits coming to see me and fades out of the picture until he sees me with other boys. Then he comes back with a limsy excuse and we go steady until he fades again. I haven't seen him now since the middle of summer.
Should I take him back again?

Dear Daisy: You're a doozy if you do. The boy's been singing his theme song and it's about time you caught the tune—"Here I go again." He's just one of those unstable men who can't be true to any one woman. If he offers the ring, have sense enough to refuse it. Better a deserted sweetheart than a deserted wife.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My boy friend claims he loves me but says if we ever break up he has enough will power to forget about me in three months. I know I could never forget him. Do you think he can make this claim and really love me? — Donna

Dear Donna: Certainly. Men,
you know, forget much more easily than women. We're the soft, sappy sex that clings to love long after it should have been reasonably interred. But, as the poet says,
"Love is of man's life a thing apart;
'tis woman's whole existence."
Men have a particular talent for forgetting. In case you break up, try to cultivate it.

Purpose of Communism Shown in Laos

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — Every once in a while, a time clock, this country gets a jolt, a reminder that communism is a revolutionary movement which intends taking over the world.

The United States is getting two jolts now. Communist guerrillas are attacking little, almost defenseless Laos. Red Chinese have shot their way across the Indian frontier, after savagely devouring Tibet.

Last year the Red Chinese Largely away at Panama. They had tried to help the North Korean Reds take South Korea. They succeeded in helping the Communists of Indochina take over half that country.

It seems incredible to this writer, judging from the nature of communism and the performance of Red China, that it will ever cease trying to take over every country of Asia, the soft touches
first, the bigger ones later.

Red China has moved so far mostly by direct, or indirect, military aggression. But it doesn't have to show its way in every thing. It can use infiltration, internal subversion, economic pressure, threats.

The Soviet Union has been more exposed than Red China to immediate atomic attack if it got too brazen. So it has been less crude, less daring.

After the Soviet Union seized Czechoslovakia in 1948 through internal subversion and frightened
the West into forming its North Atlantic Treaty Alliance, it has tried to move by pressure, infiltration, threats and economic penetration.

Because communism up to now has slipped at its neighbors a bit-at a time and then sat back, waiting for the noise to dwindle, it is easy for the Western world, so long as it lives on hope, to think things may settle down.

They never will and it is questionable they will for a long time.
The Western world considered Hitler a windbag when he openly revealed his dreams of conquest.
But lessons got forgotten.

The West does not seem unduly excited by Premier Nikita Khrushchev's warning that communism will bury the non-Communist world, even though he suggests the funeral services will be conducted by economics.

Time is the greatest narcotic communism has for trying to steeply the west into hope and convince it will win the world, is willing to take its time at the

News Briefs

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — What's hiding under W. E. Bryant's house?
Bryant called police and the city found today to report that he had been hearing cries of an animal under his house. He said he believed they came from a panther.
Police and pound employees searched for the beast. They found no panther but did find evidence that an animal had been under the southwest Little Rock home.
A pound employee said it wasn't a dog, but he declined to guess what type of animal it might be.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) —
Garland Circuit Judge P. G. Mobbs
today asked the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Department if it intended to issue liquor licenses to establishments which had been padlocked under court order.
Mobbs' inquiry, in a letter, referred to a padlock order he issued against the Sista Motel and Cafe on Highway 7 South near Hot Springs last March 10.

The judge said he had noted that this establishment was included in a list of beer licenses granted by the department as of July 1.

But at Little Rock, a spokesman for the department said officials had realized an error was made in the case and corrective action had been taken.

OWASSO, Okla. (AP) — A 27-year-old farm laborer ran a quarter of a mile Sunday with a water moccasin biting into his leg.
Jesse Crippen said the poisonous snake struck him while he was fishing at a farm pond. Unable to get it loose, he ran to the home of relatives who pulled it off.

He was reported in good condition at a Tulsa hospital.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Siamese twins girls were born dead Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Statel Harris a Methodist hospital here.

The twins were born face to face with their bodies joined at the breast bone.
Mrs. Harris, 40, was reported doing well. She and her husband, a Dallas City bus driver, have eight other children.

SAUSALITO, Calif. (AP) — Their 16-foot motorboat was sinking in the San Francisco Bay.

This group warned: "The fundamental face which dominates our foreign policy problems is the determined, relentless intention of the Soviet Union to control the world. It is important, the United States realize this is not an idle threat."

der three San Franciscans, 85 they abandoned ship in the bay.
Then Jerry Anolik, Fred Manley and Gannard Mahl climbed right back in when they decided a black creature circling them was a shark.
But the shark barked like a sea-lion, so they jumped overboard again and waited an hour for a passing yachtsman to pick them up.
They spent Sunday raising their craft and found a loose hose behind the engine responsible for the leak.

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — A rare degenerative disease of the central nervous system has ended in death of a girl who had been in a coma for more than three years.
Gloria Miller, 15, of Chambersburg, Pa., died Sunday in Harrisburg State Hospital. Doctors said there is no present cure for the disease.

At least one international street car line still exists. A three-mile loop runs between El Paso, Tex., and Juarez, Mexico.

Porkers Hit Practice Field Today

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas University's Razorbacks hit the practice field today for 44 hours of furious work before their first game with Tulsa Sept. 19.

Every one of the 74 Razorback squadmen checked in yesterday. There were no reported injuries. The hogs received equipment, underwent physical examinations, weighed in, and posed for pictures.

Today they begin two-a-day workouts which will last for at least a week. The twice daily drills could last longer if the hogs aren't in top physical condition.

Boyles said the Razorback staff would stress conditioning in the first week. Tackling, blocking and running will be the only courses on the menu for the first few days.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock said the northwest corner of the state might receive light rain today. Clouds and some mist would be a welcome addition to first-day drills.

Boyles said yesterday that four 1956 graduates will act as supplements to his coaching staff this fall. They are Jay Donathan, who was scheduled to coach Little Rock, Ramey High until it folded, Billy Atchae and Richard Bell, who were co-captains last year, and alternate quarterback Mike Conley.

The alternates will assist with the T team until the freshmen report in two weeks. Then they'll help coach Steed White.

Tulsa, the Razorbacks' first opponent, began drills Monday.

Pollution Report to Be Probed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The possibility of pollution sources in the Jacksonville area will be investigated to prevent another fish kill in Bayou Meto, the state Water Pollution Control Commission says.

Fish were reported dying in the bayou last week.

Commission Director Marvin Wood said they apparently were killed by a combination of a lack of oxygen, probably caused by sewage, and a toxic agent, probably from industrial waste.

The commission's investigation may result in some action to increase treatment of sewage and industrial waste entering the stream, Wood said.

Across The Counter

Fred O. Ellis

"Have you ever wondered how you would hold your business together if you had a complete burnout?" I asked Tom, a local businessman. "There would be that financial jolt to overcome, even if your building were completely rebuilt by the insurance money. For example, you'd have expenses to meet such as taxes and payroll. Also, you'd lose your regular profit. So you'd have to meet these expenses out of the money you have now."

"What money?" Tom laughingly replied. "Believe me, you have presented a serious problem."

"Fortunately, Business Interruption insurance is available to meet that need. Statistically, only 42% of the businesses which don't carry Business Interruption Insurance are able to reopen after a major fire. But 96% of the businesses that do have such coverage reopen again."

"Is it expensive?" Tom asked. "No, surprisingly inexpensive," I replied.

"Figure it out for me," he said.

May we show you the figures for YOUR BUSINESS?

Arkansas' Dove and Rabbit Season Opens

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas' 1956 dove and rabbit hunting seasons open today.

Shooting hours for doves will be from noon to sunset, with a daily bag limit of 10 and a possession limit of 20 after the first day. The state Game and Fish Commission said.

The season ends Oct. 5 then runs again from Dec. 17-Jan. 15. Only shotguns may be used and they must be plugged for not more than three shells.

Eight rabbits may be taken daily and the possession limit is eight. The season closes Jan. 31. Squirrel season opens Sept. 15.

Bonus Hurler Has Matched Feller's Strikeout Record

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Since the turn of the century, only Bobby Feller ever had struck out 18 men in a nine-inning game. And only two pitchers, Jack Coombs and Warren Spahn, ever struck out that many in a game that went extra innings.

Coombs did it twice, needing 24 innings the first time, then doing it again in 16. It took Spahn 15 innings.

Still, they were the only pitchers to do it—until Monday night. Then Sandy Koufax, a bonus left who has been a long time coming, matched Feller's major league record, turning back San Francisco 5-2 as Wally Moon's three-run, ninth-inning homer boosted the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers within one game of the National League leading Giants.

Feller's record, set by Cleveland's one-time blazing right-hander in a 4-1 loss to Detroit, had stood for 21 years.

While tying that spectacular strikeout performance, Koufax also set a National League record, bettering the 17 hung up by Dizzy Dean for St. Louis against Chicago's Cubs in 1933.

Koufax, a southpaw, also bettered the major league record for two consecutive games with a total of 31. He had fanned 13 in his last start against Philadelphia. Feller set the old record at 28, capping by his 16 in the final game of the 1938 season.

With Koufax (8-4) pitching his first complete game against the Giants since he signed a $20,000 bonus with the Dodgers in 1954, the Dodgers swept the last two games in the three-game series and now are only one game behind the Giants in the lost column.

It was the only game scheduled in the NL and also cut San Francisco's edge over third-place Milwaukee to 2½ games. Fourth-place Pittsburgh trails by 3½.

In the American League, Boston beat Washington 4-3 in 10 innings on Pete Runnels' home run. New York's game at Baltimore as rained out. No other games were scheduled.

Koufax, passed over by the Giants five years ago after a wild performance in a workout, also bettered his own major league record for a night game (18), set last June against the Phils.

He did it against a batting order overloaded with right-handed hitters—supposed to be poison for lefties. Rookie Willie McCovey broke a 1-1 tie with a fifth-inning homer, was the only left-hander Koufax faced.

In all, Koufax gave up seven hits—with the Giants scoring in the first on doubles by Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda—and walked but two. He struck out every Giant at least once, getting Jackie Brandt and losing pitcher Jack Sanford three times each to tie the record.

The Dodgers also managed seven hits, tying the Giants in the first on a walk, stolen base, passed ball and an infield out. They got even again in the eighth, when Moon walked, got to second on a sacrifice and scored on two wild pitches.

Moon then broke it up, slicing a 1-1 pitch over the left field screen for his 12th homer after Al Worthington had replaced Sanford and fanned Gilliam.

Sanford (12-11) struck out seven, setting a two-team major league record of 25.

More Time Requested on Mental Test

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Extra time has been asked by the State Hospital in its examination of a truck driver charged with fatally beating his infant daughter.

Houston Presley Buck, 24, of Little Rock, was sent to the hospital July 30 for his second 30-day mental observation period. The period ended yesterday but hospital officials said Buck would be kept another week.

Buck was charged with murder in connection with the Feb. 18 death of his seven-year-old daughter.

The hospital reported after the first examination that Buck was sane, but his second test was ordered on request of his attorney.

Conferees on Labor Bill in Another Try

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate House conferees failed again this morning to reach agreement on the labor bill but announced they would try again this afternoon.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), conference chairman, announced he had offered some new proposals in an effort to break the stalemate. He said there was no final agreement on any of them.

Both sides appeared weary of opening a full-dress labor debate on the Senate floor and anxious instead to try to settle the issues in the conference meeting or the 11th day.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, who had threatened to bring the controversy to the Senate floor for debate, held off on this move.

Senate Democrats fighting for modifications in the House-passed Landrum-Griffin bill leaned on an unusual ally, Republican Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, in the battle over one of the most heavily disputed points.

The hard bargaining in the conference appeared to have left two really hard nuts to crack.

1. Whether unrestricted picketing at a construction project should be exempt from the general ban on secondary boycotts.

2. Whether unrestricted organizational picketing should be allowed if the employer involved is guilty of an unfair labor practice.

The four Senate Democratic conferees are fighting for the first point, so far there has been no sign of give from the House.

Late Monday, Mitchell sent a telegram to an AFL-CIO official asserting the administration still favored such an exemption. President Eisenhower asked for it in his labor message in January.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) heading the Senate conference majority, hailed this as demonstrating the soundness of his side's position.

He said the construction site issue was the "biggest stumbling block" left in the conference and added he hoped the Republican conferees would follow Mitchell's position.

Such picketing involves a secondary boycott because subcontractors not involved in a dispute often are shut down if a union pickets one employer on the job.

On the second key issue, the Senate majority wants organizational picketing permitted indefinitely if the employer has committed any unfair labor practice.

The House side argues that such a right should be given only if the employer has entered into a collusive or sweetheart type of contract with another union.

May Call Back Congress Over Interet Plan

By JACK BELL

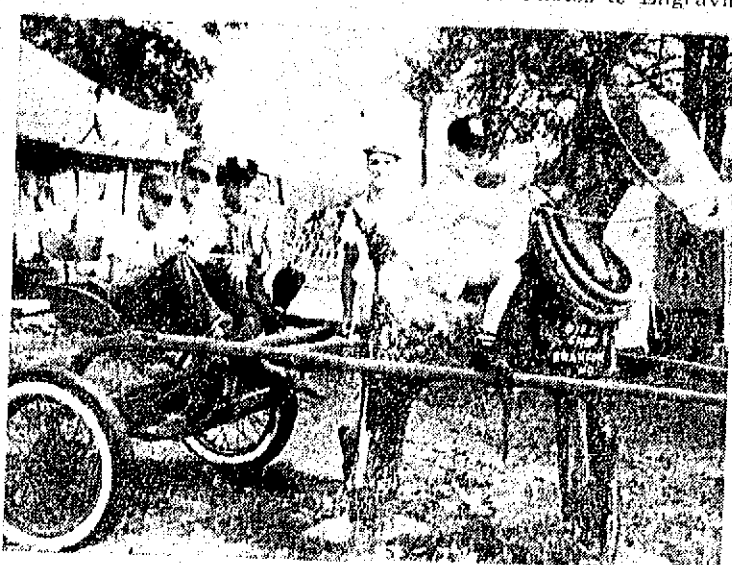

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has told Republican leaders he may call Congress back into special session this fall if it fails to lift the interest ceiling on government bonds.

The President also has made it clear to the party chiefs he will consider such a session, call it Congress cuts foreign and funds abroad, and he regards as a must for the national security.

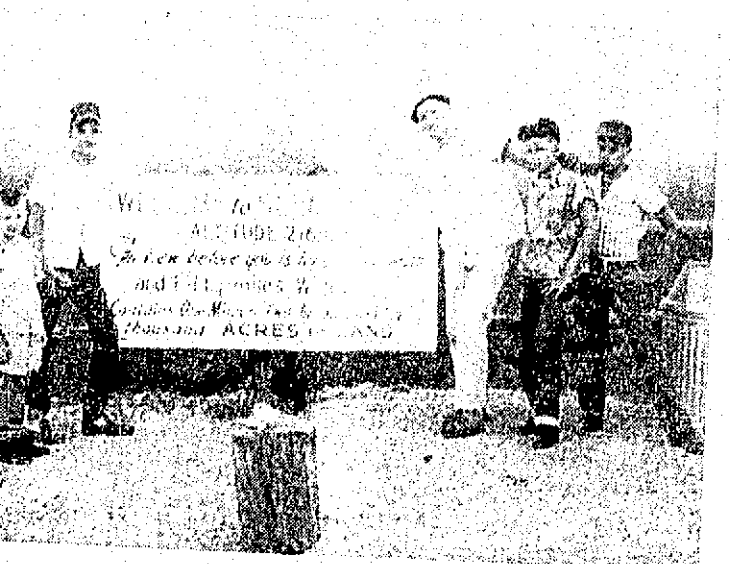

The possibility of presidential action to light as leaders of both sides have up hope of breaking the current session.

Democratic strategists were set to meet last night, but no date has been set for that meeting.

Baseball Had Attention of Touring Newsboys

Winners in the Hope Star's circulation contest got an all-expense trip to St. Louis last week, traveling a total of 1,311 and seeing the sights of the city. Making the trip were C. M. Rogers, Jr., circulation manager; Carriers Jackie Hearst, Danny Hatfield, Frank Tyler, Mike Braden and Mr. Rogers' son, Doug.

TUESDAY, August 25—the first night was spent at Farmington, Mo., a city of 3,000 and only 70 miles from St. Louis.

WEDNESDAY, August 26—Arrived at St. Louis zoo at 10 a. m. but heavy rain forced the group to take cover at the airport. After the rain went to the baseball park and saw batting practice and then the game between the St. Louis Cardinals and the Milwaukee Braves.

THURSDAY, August 27—Saw home run hitting contest held prior to the Cardinals-Braves' game. Julius LaRosa was judge of the contest. During the ball game the group met Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Thrush and Larry and Linda of Hope. By this time the boys were loaded down with souvenirs of ball, baseball caps etc. From the game which was delayed by more rain the boys went to the YMCA.

FRIDAY, August 28—Made tour of the city and over to East St. Louis so the boys could say they had been to Illinois. Had lunch at the Air Port and from there back to the third ball game. Incidentally all the games were won by St. Louis.

SATURDAY, August 29—Hated to get out of those soft tourist beds after three nights in a field. Left by 9 a. m. for Springfield, Mo. to see the Ozark Jubilee show. Enroute to Springfield the boys found out about grape vineyards from a pretty little Miss at Rolla, Mo. Spent night in Springfield.

SUNDAY, August 30—Left for home at 7 a. m. but visited at Rockaway Beach, famous southern Missouri resort. Stopped at Marble Falls rainbow trout farm south of Harrison and at scenic point, 2,100 feet high. Four of the boys had never seen Hot Springs so made a tour of the city before making the last leg home.

Purring Cat Brings End to Crime Life
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Police say a purring cat brought an end to Richard Savoy's reign as a life of crime.

They said Savoy climbed into James A. Bentley's car in Los Angeles Saturday night and forced him to kidnap to a house at 47th and Oak and back. Bentley, 47, a Los Angeles tradesman, said Savoy told him he was holding him hostage and he could get a deposit of $10,000 with which to start a life of crime.

Oklahoma Is Wet for First Time in Years

Oklahoma City (AP)—Oklahomans can taste legal liquor for the first time in 32 years today.

At 10 a. m. doors swung open at some 300 state-sanctioned package stores. An era will end.

Prohibition, born of Indian troubles and Carrie Nation oratory, will be a relic of this young state's past.

On the surface, strangers will find things pretty much the same. Nothing resembling a mass binge is expected. No public celebrations are planned.

"I don't look for a drunken brawl," said State Crime Bureau Chief Forrest Castle. "I think most people will just be drinking a toast to legalized whisky."

But in case those toasts get out of hand, Castle plans to have agents spread around the state with an eye for disturbances.

The new era won't mean the introduction of whisky to Oklahoma. For 52 years bootleggers have been silent butlers of a flourishing illegal liquor trade.

They were accommodating as the barroom free lunch. Now they may become just as obsolete.

Gov. J. Howard Edmondson, the state's 33-year-old chief executive who brought about repeal, summed up the historic switch in a statement of shockless brevity.

"Today won't mark any change as far as the presence of liquor in Oklahoma is concerned," the governor said. "It will mark the beginning of an era of liquor taxation in Oklahoma."

Liquor representation without taxation, as much as any other factor, brought about the doom of prohibition. Steady bootlegging was another cause.

The state's high $2.40 per gallon liquor tax is considered a long overdue source of state revenue. Oklahoma's budget for the next two years is tied to the expected liquor money.

Oklahomans voted for repeal April 7. Three months later the Legislature completed the rules for liquor consumption and distribution. Since then the state has been busy issuing licenses.

Under its new law, Oklahoma will have package sales only with no public drinking.

There will be no local option. Any city of at least 200 population can have stores.

The demise of prohibition in Oklahoma leaves only one state, Mississippi, constitutionally dry.

Some South Schools Have No Violence

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
School integration has started in several Southern cities without the violence which marked the opening of classes in some sections in the past.

An increasing number of Negro youngsters are trading off to integrated schools. They are expected to be joined by other states this week and next.

The changes are mostly in the upper and border states, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi and South Carolina are holding firm to traditional separate schools for white children and Negroes.

Potential trouble at the Dollarway School District near Pine Bluff, Ark., has been postponed date was put off until after a hearing Sept. 21 in St. Louis on an appeal from an integration order by a federal judge.

The advance of at least token integration in many parts of Dixie has been accompanied by a barrage of new suits. In Virginia the massive resistance pattern appears to have been replaced by a policy of maximum containment.

Integrated schools open in several cities today including Arlington, Va., and Nashville, Tenn. Classes also started at the previously all-white elementary school at Sturgis, Ky., where 44 Negro children registered Monday under a federal court order to integrate all Union County elementary schools.

Eleven Negro children are attending classes with white pupils at Havelock, a coastal North Carolina community where integration began Friday. No incidents have been reported.

Most public schools opened in Alabama and Georgia Monday. No attempts at integration were reported in either state. The Alabama School Board is under federal court order to submit a desegregation plan by Dec. 1.

At Birmingham, Ala., wooden crosses were burned Monday night near ten white schools.

cut, Goldie. En route back from Oxnard Goldie crawled into Savoy's lap and began to purr—and then went to sleep. Savoy relaxed. Soon he went to sleep, too. Bentley spotted a police patrol car and flagged down the officers. They booked the 21-year-old Savoy on suspicion of kidnapping.

HILL SMOKE

BY L. P. HOOVER

Chapter XXXII
Done with the meal, Haskell rolled a smoke, and, after thanking Joe, he and Sandy Lee cut back to the street.

Sandy headed off down street to where he had left his horse in front of Doc Venable's office. Haskell turned into the store where, with no surprise, he found Milo Jellick and Jim Kincaid hobnobbing as usual. They asked immediately for all the word on Coulter's killing, and Haskell gave it to them briefly.

"It's the start," Jellick said. "Haskell looked at him narrowly. 'Start of what?'"

"That which has long been shaping up in these hills—a showdown between the right kind of people and the wrong kind."

"Maybe," said Haskell skeptically. "But it's simpler to figure it just one renegade gunning down another. For some personal reason, probably a small one. For it doesn't take much to set off a killer of gentle's stripes."

"Simpler," put in Jim Kincaid, his eyes puckered and shrewdly considering. "And it could be just that. Yet there are other angles that grow steadily wider as you look at them. This fellow Coulter is plainly heading for town, as the west rim trail leads no place else. He's in a hurry and concerned with his back trail. From the sign as you and Sandy Lee read it when you went out for the body, Gentile had come to across the flank of the hills to head Coulter off. These, my friend, are the facts?"

"The facts," Haskell admitted. "Slay with them."

"Very well," went on Kincaid. "Each by itself could mean little. Put them together—the why of them. I mean—and you could come up with something plenty big. Such as maybe Coulter was bringing some kind of word to town which Gentile didn't want known—maybe a warning of some kind."

Haskell gave a short laugh. "You should put a halt on that imagination, Jim. Else you'll be trying to fly without wings. Answer me this question. Who would Coulter have wanted to warn—and what for?"

"You, perhaps," shot back Kincaid quickly.

"But why would Coulter bring me a warning?" Haskell argued. "He's reason to hate me as much as any."

"True," agreed Kincaid. "Yet he was ever a sly one, was Stack Coulter, where his own hide was concerned. They tell me he went over to Beaverhead with Teller. Maybe he didn't like what he found there. Maybe he decided there was little future of Stack Coulter with that crowd, and was figuring on a deal that would get him back in the good graces of worth while folk. I tell you, the man was a schemer."

"All of that," nodded Milo Jellick. "But regardless of the why of it, the cold fact is that Frank Gentile shot Stack Coulter to death and left him where he fell. It is the demonstration of willingness to kill that is the sign, tact tells the mood. It is an uneasy world, I say."

While Haskell pondered these thoughts, spurs rattled across the warped porch planks and then it was Sandy Lee again, slipping in at the door. He was grave and taut as he put his glance and words straight to Haskell.
